Dear Director,

An exciting educational and performance opportunity for young musicians is taking shape nationally called WGI Winds. WGI winds is an artistic medium focused providing a new musical and visual competitive avenue for your students.

Potential benefits:

- Increased proficiency on concert instruments
- Exposure to a new instrument
- Unique performance environment
- Personal growth and increased maturity
- Staying physically active
- Opportunity for wide range of instruction

FAQ:

How much does it cost?

Approximately $250 per event per ensemble.

What happens at events?

Students perform a 4 to 6 minute presentation of music and motion/choreography indoors in front of enthusiastic audience. Clinicians and judges provide real time recorded feedback emphasizing opportunities to improve excellence, yet rewards performer demonstration of quality. Students have the opportunity to watch other ensembles perform as well as participate in clinics.

When are the competitions?

February through April.

Where can I get more information?

The NWAPA is committed and invested in growing the indoor winds presence in our local area. If you have any questions about WGI Winds or are interested in forming your own ensemble, please contact myself or the NWAPA President.

Thank you, and we hope to hear from you soon.

Sincerely,
