2021 Fall Survey Results

Do you have any predictions on what your school or district will or won't allow for travel next fall?

No

No answer

no idea

No predictions at this time.

Local and regional travel statewide

So far my district is cautiously optimistic about travel next fall.

We will be able to travel by bus to events.

At this point we are anticipating a return to normal operations.

Not yet confirmed, but it is hopeful.

Travel will be allowed, much like sports teams are allowed to travel right now.

No idea

Our school's sports teams are currently traveling to compete so I anticipate being allowed to travel in the fall for marching band.

Nope. They are allowing sports so they will allow band.

No information yet; travel may be permitted, but potential spacing requirements may prove financially difficult.

No

No idea

2021 Fall Survey Results

Other Thoughts from the Survey regarding the upcoming season:

- Classification update to allow for a “very small” band division. Suggestions included:
 - Combining the OSAA classifications with the current classifications
 - 40 members or under
- Consider one and done contests (ie no prelims and finals) to reduce crowds and transportation costs.
